Girl Develop It 1-Year Anniversary Party

THURSDAY, JUNE 4, 2015

PILLAR TECHNOLOGY

ANN ARBOR, MI

About the GDI Ann Arbor 1-Year Anniversary Party

Join us in celebrating the amazing Ann Arbor-based women in tech community that Girl Develop It has helped to build up over the last year. Hear brief remarks from some incredible students, instructors and volunteers whose lives have been impacted by their involvement with GDI and mingle with community members who've supported the growth and success of Girl Develop It throughout the year.

Get dressed up or come as you are to share a toast with us - to the accomplishments we've all made as a community!

Save the date now for the Thursday, June 4, 2015 celebration at Pillar Technology's new downtown location.

About Girl Develop It Ann Arbor

Girl Develop It Ann Arbor is the local chapter of a national nonprofit organization that exists to provide affordable and accessible programs for women to learn web and software development. With chapters in 45 cities (and growing) our vision is to empower women from diverse backgrounds to learn to code. We foster a judgment-free learning environment that is welcome to beginners. In Ann Arbor, we serve almost 900 members and are one of the most active chapters in the country. We are improving the lives of women every day. Be a part of it.

Support Levels

This party is also a fundraiser! Support Girl Develop It's initiatives in Ann Arbor and beyond.
